- You MUST be 18 years or older to order.
- Remember that there's a human being behind the screen. I am not a robot, and I can't give you a guaranteed set turnaround, as life can get in the way.
Generally, your commission will be done within 3 months or less. If you need anything done sooner, I'll try to rearrange my schedule to get it done on time. However, it will cost extra.
- Of course, prices are always subject to change in the future.
- I don't offer refunds unless for whatever reason, if I'm unable to finish your commission, I'll let you know and refund you in full. Please make sure you're 100% sure you want to commission me before paying.
- Payment is 100% upfront via Stripe/Ko-Fi.
- Please do not resell my artwork. (as prints, posters, merch, etc.) Only you, the client have permission to print the artwork for your personal use. If you'd like to do this with commissioned pieces, talk to me first, and we can agree on an upfront fee or a fair share of the profit on my end.
- Major edits/redraws will cost you extra.
If you need something changed, please let me know once you review the initial sketch of the piece, and I'll do changes accordingly.
Once you've given me the go-ahead on the sketch, then I'll continue with the full piece, but if you want a major edit on the full piece itself (i.e., entirely changing the expression on a face, or drawing a completely different pose), you'll have to pay extra, so make sure to review the sketch and give feedback on what you want changed before giving me the OK to continue the piece.
- I have the right to reject any order that I do not want to complete for any reason.
- You may repost the commissioned piece to use/edit for personal use however you'd like, as long as you give me appropriate credit.
- While the artwork is yours to use, you may not remove my watermark. If you'd like one unmarked, there will be a $30 fee. An unmarked copy however, does not give you permission to use the artwork for your own business reasons.
- Please do NOT use the images you've commissioned to train generative AI models on my work. You will be blacklisted if you do.
